Our Times

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

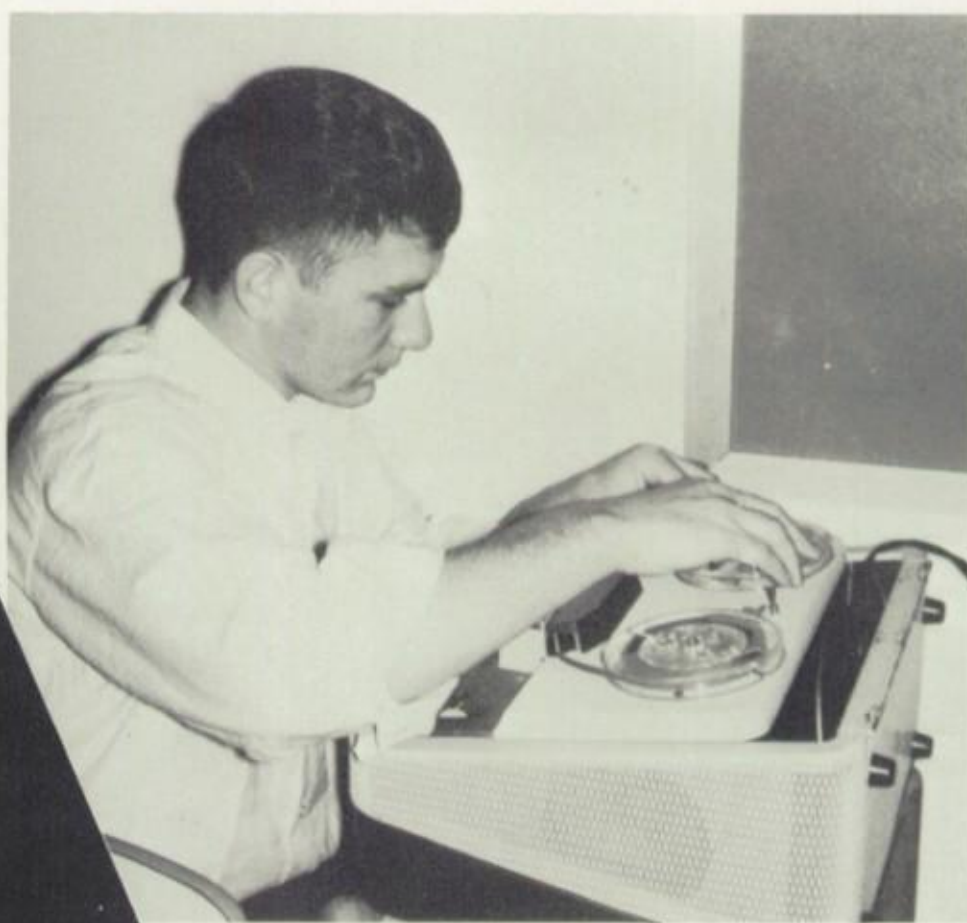

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-8

Special Times in a Teacher's Day

Mrs. Broyles prepares the Thanksgiving bulletin board, one of the many which she designs for just about every important occasion during the session.

Mr. Hackney talks with Carolyn Knighting about a book-keeping matter.

At the party Mrs. Bouroudjian's class gave for her, she is about to have a piece of cake.

Mr. Duval points out to Carolyn Rast a few special notes.

Mr. William Mitchell writes a Math 8 test on the board.

How Seniors Spend Some of Their Time

Mary Agnes Jarrell performs a daily routine.

At a P.T.A. refreshment hour, Mrs. William Pattie, Jr., serves Jimmy Dyer, Roger Weakley, and Laurie Bennett McLearn, who were participants in the meeting that evening.

Margaret Leake, Nancy Hawkins, Barbara Reddish, and Connie Carpenter, along with other seniors, are listening to Mrs. Broyles as she explains how the library reference materials may be used effectively.

A familiar scene is Mr. Jones conferring with a pupil. Here the pupil is Sandra Landis.

Roger Berry and Bobby Booker take a look at the round, round world.

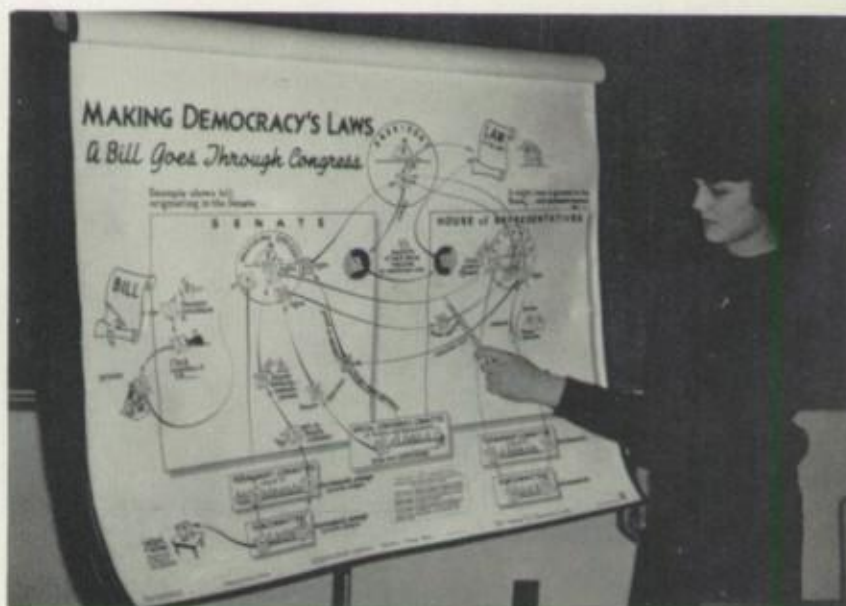

Perhaps Franklin Sparks is giving his locker a fall cleaning.

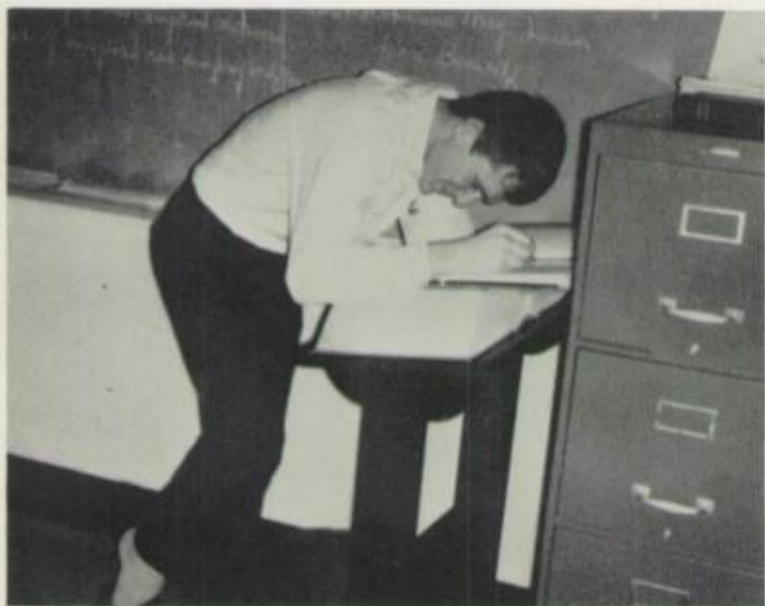

Senior Times

Last summer Joe Kidd visited the Capitol, where he visited every Senator and secured from each a Gallery pass containing the law-maker's signature. Then he made a notebook, which was used a bit in government class.

While working on projects connected with Congress, Sandra Landis explained the passage of a bill through both Houses-with the help of a new chart.

In English class, Roger Weakley is caught in a candid pose as he checks the dictionary.

Nearly every day during fourth period study hall, Maynard Reynolds and Ronnie Boyd wrestle with advanced math.

Dora Tappy and Nancy Utz are reviewing the script for the weekly WJMA program, which covers subjects and activities pertaining to MCHS.

Jimmy Hash and Tom Utz engage in a bit of monkey play at a Junior Varsity basketball game.

Junior Classman Kenneth Smith is a member of the F.F.A.'s. Farm Mechanics Judging Team, which was a winner last year and is competing again this year at Albemarle High School. He is flanked by Seniors John Wayne Jarrell and Don Myers.

Joe Goodall casts his ballot in SCA sponsored mock Presidential election.

Norma Jarrell, Robert Lohr, George Ross, Roger Davis, Jesse Mike Estes, and Ronnie Estes do some research work in the library.

Freshman Times

Closely observing some chemical solution in a glass are these chemistry pupils: Steve Aylor and Ollie Kitchen.

These two Art Class pupils are preparing fruit for Christmas wreaths. They are Lou Leake and Edward Pritchett.

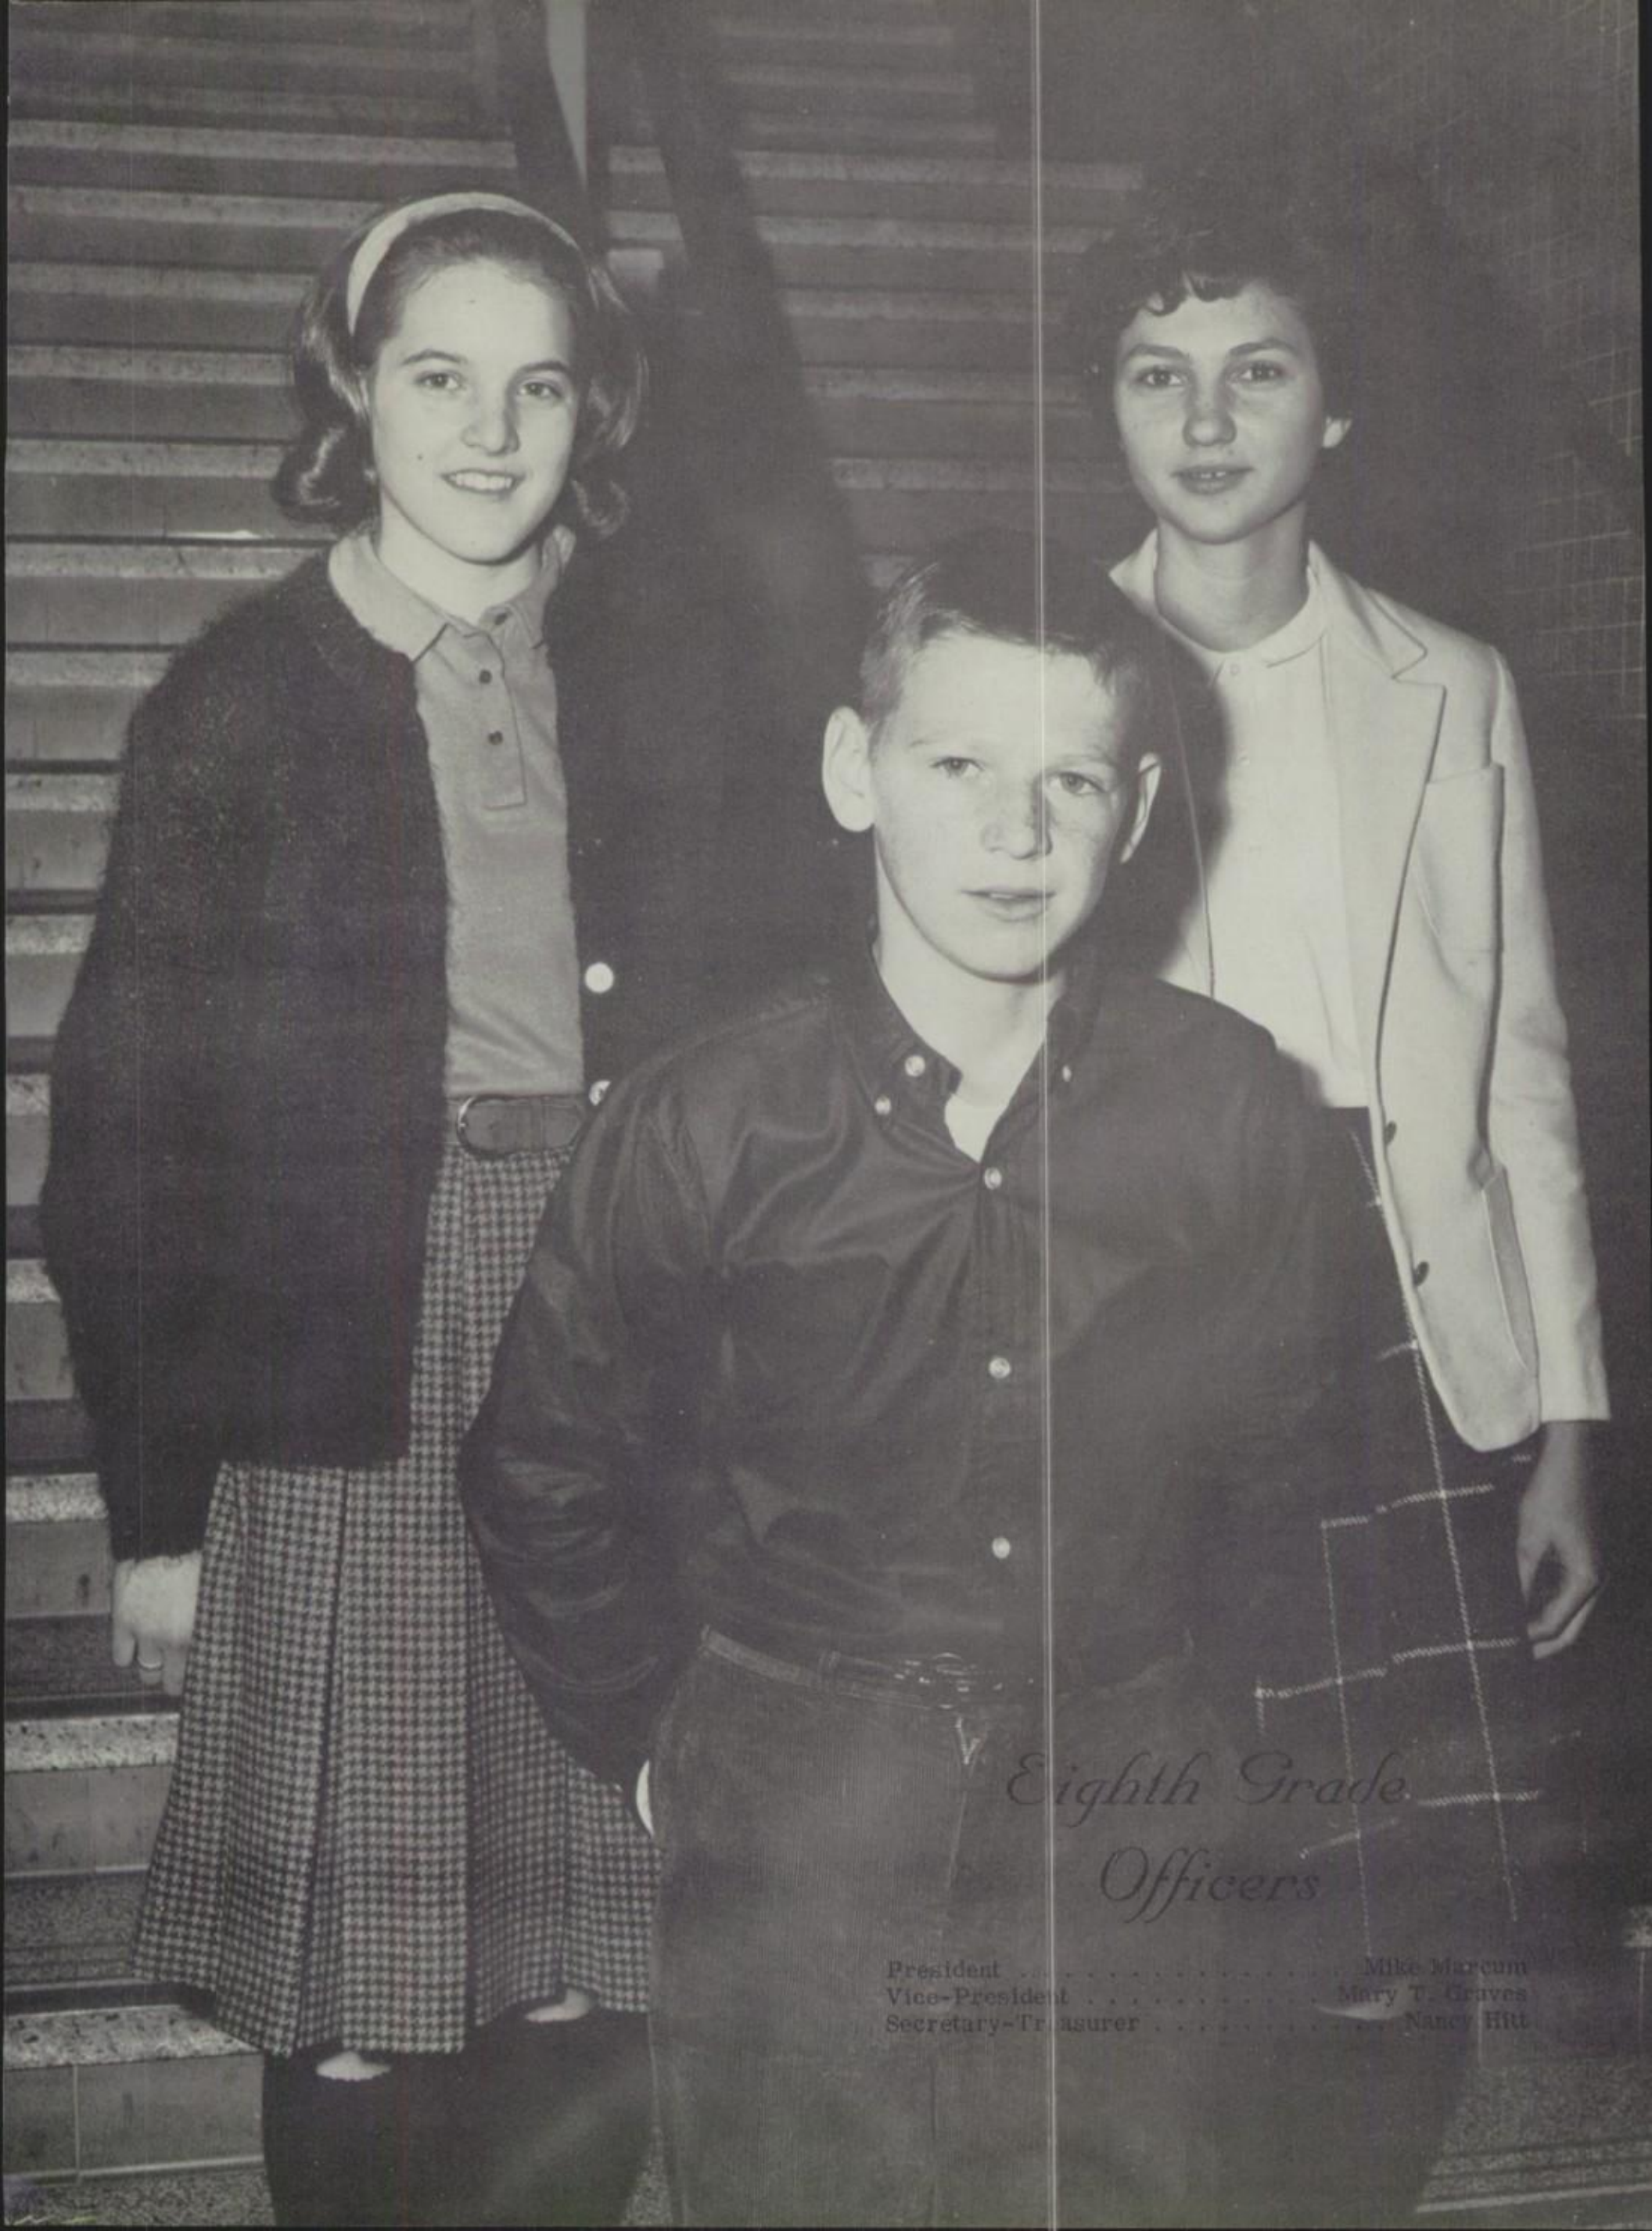

Going through the process of checking out a book are library assistant Joy Hamm and Jim Lohr, the borrower.

Mrs. Hackney and her pupils--Temple Twyman, Cy Witherow, and Laurel Sparks--admire the results of their science display.

Jim Lohr and Charles Hawkins are concentrating on midterm examinations.

Homecoming—1964

Queen Alice Seale

Cut-outs of Coaches Billy Mitchell and John Adair publicize Homecoming.

Varsity Cheerleaders spur the football team on to victory.

Homecoming Personalities

Alice Seale, Margaret Leake, and Nancy Hawkins wait to hear who is going to be Homecoming Queen for 1964.

After her name is announced, Queen Alice is escorted off the field by Tri-captain John Wayne Jarrell.

Alice Seale Crowned at

The Crowning of Homecoming Queen Alice Seale by tri-captain John Jarrell is the highlight of the evening's entertainment.

The Den Eustler Quartet provides music for the Homecoming dance.

Jimmy Graves, 1954 graduate, is the emcee for the evening.

Queen Alice happily reigns as "queen for a night."

The Queen and her escort, John Jarrell, take time out for refreshments.

Dance Saturday Night

Attendant Margaret Leake escorted by tri-captain James Hash.

The Queen escorted by tri-captain John Jarrell.

Attendant Nancy Hawkins escorted by tri-captain Aubrey Clore.

Princess Martha Fishback, from the Eleventh Grade, escorted by Joe Goodall.

Princess Susan Jenkins, from the Tenth Grade, escorted by Frank Graves.

From the Ninth Grade, Princess Mary Gayle Fishback escorted by Steve Hawkins.

From Grade Eight, Princess Jerrie Walker escorted by Mike Marcum.

With a highly polished red apple, SCA President Roger Weakley welcomes a new teacher--Mrs. Hackney.

The PTA's school-sign project is now completed and set up.

SCA guest speaker, exchange student Ute Ringeling of Germany, captivated her audience with descriptions and stories of her home land.

Laurie Bennett McLearen is the winner of the Homemaker of Tomorrow award. She was among other Senior girls who took a written knowledge and attitude test for the purpose of determining the winner.

Some More Times

Ralph Danny Nicholson studies pictures of famous world personalities.

Carolyn Rast and Joan Fishback are two of the Junior Class members who attended College Night at Albermarle High School.

Dora Kay Brown and Mary Margaret Tourond show how "I pledge allegiance to the flag" should be performed.

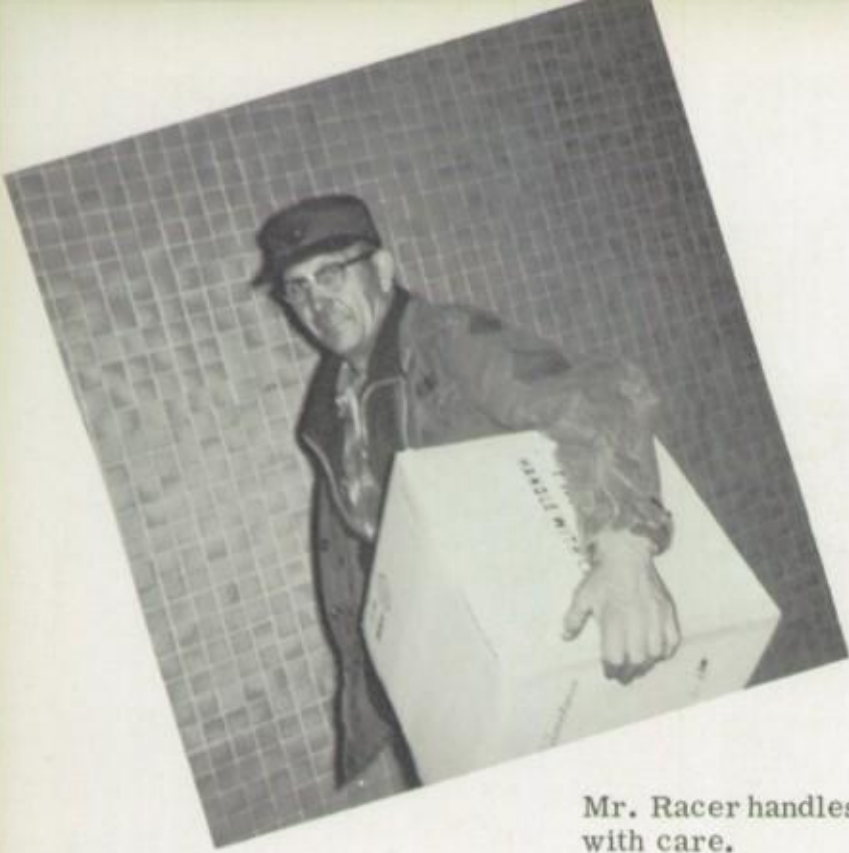

One of Sarah George's jobs as Library assistant is to work at lettering books with a stylus.

Roger Weakley, S. C. A. president, presents Mrs. Virginia Finks with an apple on the first day of school.

Allan McLearen displays his collection of rocks.

Work Time at M. C. H. S.

Mr. Racer handles his load with care.

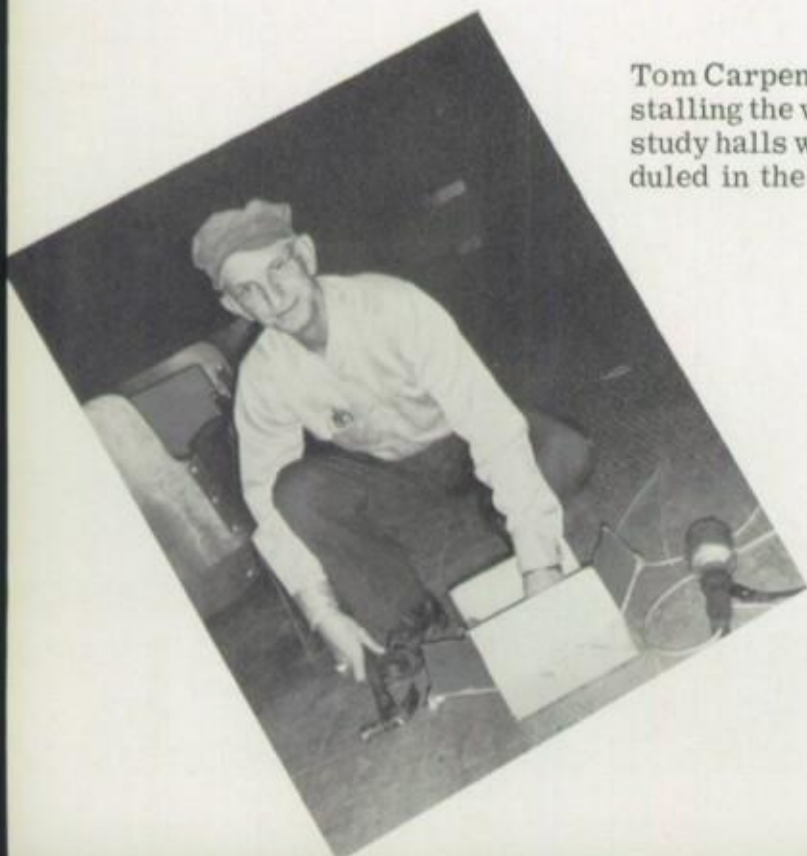

Mr. Butler prepares for the morning rush.

Jimmy Dyer dutifully sells milk to Odie Hale.

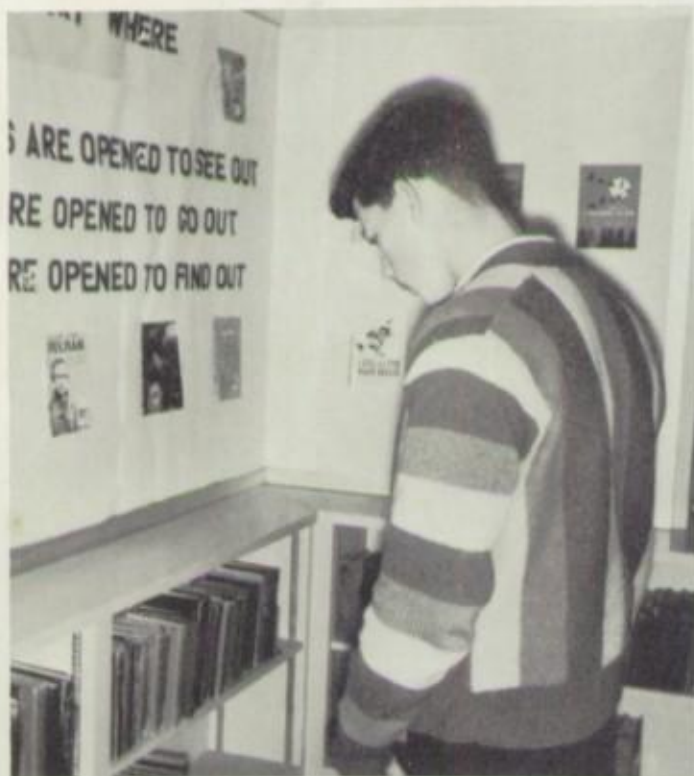

Mrs. Myers cleans up after a hectic lunch hour.

Tom Carpenter works at installing the work boards for study halls which are scheduled in the auditorium.

Carolyn and Gertrude Turner prepare cornbread for serving.

Miss Rachel Crigler

Miss Rachel Crigler feels that the time has now come for her to close the classroom door through which she will not be going in and out any more. Needless to say, Madison County High School regrets that Miss Crigler will not be one of the staff hereafter. The faculty and student body would like to emphasize that their very best wishes for full and happy retirement days go along with her as she leaves the place where she has so perseveringly labored.

MADISON COUNTY AMERICANA - The Germanna Colony

One of the earliest settlements in America, beyond a coastal region, was established in Madison County, Virginia.

After a first settlement in Orange County, in 1717, the people of Germanna moved to their second, and permanent, site near the Robinson River in Madison County.

Many of the citizens of modern day Madison County are descendants of the 1717 Germanna settlement. They are proud of their ancestors - as well they should be. The people of Germanna were intelligent and highly skilled. They helped to nourish the settlement of Virginia and the West.
